

UCF Victim Services Events: Fall 2009

Market Day Tables: September 2nd, 9th, 16th, 23rd, and 30th

Every Wednesday during September from 9:00am– 2:00pm, UCF Victim Services will be outside the Student Union on the front patio providing information, answering questions, playing games and giving away free goodies.

Intern/ Volunteer Open House: September 23rd

Are you interested in doing an internship or volunteering for great organization? If so, please stop by the Victim Services office located at 12201 Research Parkway, Suite 450, on Sept. 23rd from 4:00pm– 6:00pm to find out more information on Victim Services, the intern/ volunteer experience, meet the staff and ask questions to current interns/ volunteers.

The Clothesline Project: October 7th, 14th, 21st, and 28th

The Clothesline Project provides a way to raise awareness in the community about issues of victimization. Survivors of victimization can design a T-Shirt that will be displayed inside the Student Union for the entire month of October. UCF Victim Services will have a table outside the Union every Wednesday during October from 9:00am– 2:00pm where students, staff and faculty can come and design a shirt.

A mandatory training will be held on Tuesday September 29th from 4pm- 6pm OR Wednesday September 30th from 12pm- 2pm (Students only need to attend one of these trainings) at our office: 12201 Research Parkway, Suite 450, to go over crisis intervention, reactions and also to answer any questions/ concerns before the event. Please RSVP to Charlotte Hewkin; chewkin@mail.ucf.edu or 407-823-4747 by Monday, September 28th.

Light Up The Night: Dating/Domestic Violence Awareness Vigil : October 5th

Light Up The Night is a vigil with a twist. Bring your cell phones and use it's light to honor those affected by dating and domestic violence. There will be guest speakers, survivor stories, and entertainment. This event will take place from 6:00pm – 9:00pm in front of the UCF Reflection Pond and Millican Hall.

Domestic Violence Awareness Fair: Be Aware, Be Involved, Be Educated: October 22nd:

On October 22nd from 10:00am– 4:00pm, inside the Pegasus Ballroom, UCF Victim Services, the Office of Diversity Initiatives and Disability Services will be presenting a Domestic Violence fair to bring awareness and education to the entire UCF community. Join us for live entertainment, a self defense workshop as well as Information tables.
